Re: PFAS Declaration and Compliance

Dated: August 21, 2024

To Whom It May Concern:

CalRamic Technologies LLC continues to monitor and audit our process, and vendors in relation to all regulatory, and compliance requirements for all materials. As such, CalRamic Technologies LLC has confirmed that there are NO regulated PFAS materials within our products that we ship to our worldwide clients. Going forward all materials that are purchased for our products shall be evaluated for PFAS materials.
